

Super Ball 2018

World open Freestyle Football Championships

Freestyle football for a short period of its existence earned a big name among sports. But it has never happened that one event brought together more than 300 players from around the world. Participants from all corners of the globe will gather in Prague, Czech republic to measure their strength and skills.

Prague - Over 300 of the best players from around the world will show off their skills right in the middle of the old continent. Craziest tricks, incredible creations and endless respectable performance using only a football. All of this can be seen at the end of August at athletic area of Slavia, Prague 10. All big names in the development of Freestyle Football will share their experiences and knowledge with present people.

Super Ball 2018 builds its fame on the previous years. World Freestyle Football Association considers this event as the most prestigious tournament for the global community. A professional jury consisting of the legends of the sport, the best athletes of world class and more competitive disciplines creates unique character of the entire tournament. Czech scene proves that it has taken a leading position in development of the sport not only organization wise but also on the field of competing. Czech Freestyle Football Association (CFFA) will be represented by top athletes such as multiple Czech champion Petr "Kari" Karasek and other young enthusiasts.

"Since I decided to get this sport to the next level, it's been 10 years. Not even in a dream I have thought that I could ever hold tournament of such a format as the European, World championship and now Super Ball. At the same time, however, I regret that as the organizer of this event, I can not actively participate and represent my country. This event will be remembered in history as well as any tournament we have organized," says founder of Czech Freestyle Football scene and tournament director Lukas Skoda, more known as Lucaso. During final evening audience could see an exhibition performances of other Freestyle sport artists. The organizers have joined forces with production company PJ Art and promise that the tournament will be one of the largest freestyle events.

The biggest attraction for the players and the audience is definitely the presence of stars of World Freestyle Football scene. They will meet with the illustrious names that are fighting over the high partitions each year. It's especially the Norwegian racer who is collecting high ranking from big tournaments over last 2 years Erlend Fagerli and defending World champion Ricardinho from Brazil. These two will face strong combinations of actual leader in global ranking Norwegian Erlend Fagerli, the Japanese baller Yo Katsuyama, Colombian styler Boyka, freestyle creative freestylers from Poland such as Luki or Michryc or Super ball 2017 vice-champion unpredictable gamer Pedro Oliveira from Brazil better known as Pedrinho.

Open World Championships will take 5 days, when Saturday evening top players will compete in main disciplines on the Ovocny trh street, Prague 1 as one of the busiest parts of Prague. Hosting double consisting from italian passionate Lorenzo Pincioli will provide amusing atmosphere during whole evening. Kicking a football as you have never seen it before will be seen on August 2018.

Super Ball 2018 - World open Freestyle Football Championships

WHEN? 25th August 2018 at 18:00

WHERE? Ovocny trh (Fruit market street), Prague 1, Czech republic

Number of Players: 300 - 4 competitions in final (16 players in battle, 5 in routines, 5 in double routines and 4 female battle)

Expected number of visitors during final evening: 2000

Super Ball Disciplines:

Freestyle Battle (main competition) - two players with one ball show the best they can to judges

Freestyle routine - a player for 2 minutes showing off his performance synchronized to music

Female Battle - battle of female freestylers

Double routine - two players synchronize their performances or show together combinations

Sick Three - competition for the best combination of 3 consecutive tricks

Challenge - for lovers of fast combinations players perform predetermined tricks

Show Flow - competition for complete freestylers who control all aspects of the sport

Iron Man – marathon in basic lower body combinations

Contact:

Lukas Skoda

Tournament Director

lucaso@freestylefootball.org

Mobile: +420 775 210 889

www.superball.name

